

Sustainability

The I-290 project is considering many sustainability features, including additional greenspace areas, solar panels, permeable pavement for bike paths, sidewalk planters, LED lighting, alternatives that encourage ridesharing and transit use, and other features that support and strengthen community connections.